2018 AUSTRALIAN LEGAL HISTORY ESSAY COMPETITION: CONDITIONS OF ENTRY AND GUIDELINES

1. COMPETITION OBJECTS:

- (a) To promote interest in, and an awareness of, Australian legal history by encouraging students to develop a facility for describing historical events and for recognising their place in broader themes;
- (b) To provide opportunities for Educators and Students (at several levels) to encounter Australian legal history through development of story-telling skills and exposure to broad themes; concepts underlying the general law; and particular cases of interest; and
- (c) To recognise excellence in the study of Australian legal history.

2. THE TASK TO BE PERFORMED BY ESSAYISTS: Entrants in the Competition may address any question on Australian legal history. Possible subject matters might include Australian Constitutional history, the development of Australian law (eg, Contract, Tort, Criminal Law, Property Law, Indigenous Law), Australian legal biography and stories about Australian law and society generally (including stories about colonial engagement with Aboriginal society, the development of parliamentary democracy in Australia, tales of Australian bushrangers and stories about Australian lawyers and their families in times of war).

Essayists in search of a topic are free to address, or draw upon, essay questions set in previous years' competitions. The Competition Guidelines, and Background Notes, published in connection with earlier Competitions can be accessed via the link under the heading "Essay Competition" on the website of the Forbes Society (www.forbessociety.org.au). Without in any way intending to limit the freedom of essayists to address any question on Australian legal history, possible questions for consideration include:

- Who owns this land, anyway? ... Discuss whether Australian history has any lessons for us, today, about the meaning or significance of 'land ownership'. Do so by reference to one or more of: (a) Australia as a 'settled' or 'conquered' territory, and Aboriginal Land Rights; (b) the land titles system (known as the 'Torrens System') devised by Robert Richard Torrens; and/or (c) debate about whether Australia should, as a modern sovereign nation, be a republic.

- Can Australian History teach us anything about the role of altruism and personal responsibility in the law?
- Does legal history have anything to teach us about whether, on a proper construction of the Australian Constitution, the national parliament's "marriage power" should be interpreted as including a power to enact legislation defining marriage as including a same sex relationship?
- The use of litigation to restrain the excesses of Government, especially with respect to public policy.
